

DAY 25

Be a detective. See how many people you can find out what their biggest passion is. Start with the people closest to you, but don't stop there. See if you can find out from at least 10 people. Also, you can't just say you know it or guess. You have to ask!

OR

I bet you won't do this one! Talk to somebody you think is really different from you. This might be one of the hardest challenges you can have. Learn as much as you can about them. What do they like? What do they want to be? What do they want to do? Even though you think they're really different, see what you have in common and how you're the same.
